

HOLIDAY PLANS ANNOUNCED AT THE GRAND HOTEL GOLF RESORT & SPA

November 1, 2022 – Point Clear, Ala - With Thanksgiving in just three weeks, holiday plans are coming together at the Grand Hotel.

It is time to start making your holiday plans Grand. From family gatherings on Thanksgiving to holiday stress escapes to ringing in the New Year, experts at the Grand Hotel are prepared to help make the holidays magical. From Christmas shopping in Fairhope's boutiques to spectacular holiday décor revealed the day after Thanksgiving, plans this year at the Grand Hotel are better than ever. Enjoy the massive oaks with twinkling lights, a massive gingerbread village of The Grand, wreaths, poinsettias, and Christmas trees this holiday season. Or relax and recharge from holiday stress with world-class treatments in the spa. Here are some of the Grand options available to our guests this holiday season.

Thanksgiving at the Grand: Be thankful for family and friends. Grand guests can enjoy family fun activities, arts and crafts, Grand activity land, sunset walks along Mobile Bay, the warmth of the fire pits, and shopping in the boutiques in downtown Fairhope.

Holiday Decor & More: The magnificent Grand oak trees will be covered in lights and candy cane light posts will help create great Christmas memories for children of all ages. Grand Pastry Chef Kimberly Lyons and her Grand team create a magnificent Gingerbread Village features a massive replica of the Grand Hotel for the resort's lobby. A must is playing the "I SPY" game and search for items the following items: Grand ducks, Nitro (Chef Kimberly's dog), the statue of Bucky, and many other features of the Grand Hotel. This display has been named one of the best in the country for the past five years from Historic Hotels of America. Each building at the Grand Hotel will have decorated Christmas trees and plenty of poinsettias to get you in the holiday spirit. Hotel rooms around Christmas are available at grand1847.com. Work on the gingerbread display started in early October.

Gingerbread House Classes: Learn step-by-step how to decorate your own gingerbread house. Get in the holiday spirit and leave with a gingerbread house creation of your own. Enjoy this fun and interactive class with your family. This class is offered on Saturday, December 3rd, 10th, & 17th at 10a.m. Class size is limited, and the cost is $50 per gingerbread house decorated. Go to Grand Hotel Golf Resort & Spa - Culinary Academy - How to Decorate a Gingerbread House 2022 to purchase tickets.

Breakfast with Santa is available to hotel guests and Lakewood Golf Club Members on November 26th, December 3rd, 10th, & 17th from 7a.m. until 10:30a.m. in our conference center. Reservations are required and online at Eventbrite.com and search for the Grand Hotel. Our Breakfast with Santa menu is available on Alabama Holiday Resort | The Grand Hotel Golf Resort & Spa \(grand1847.com\)

Our Grand Thanksgiving and Christmas buffets are available to hotel guests and Lakewood Golf Club Members. Menus are available on Alabama Holiday Resort | The Grand Hotel Golf Resort & Spa \(grand1847.com\).

Happy New Year: End the year with a great meal in Southern Roots or Bayside Grill, relaxing by a fire or cozying up with room service for two in your suite. Celebrate the end of 2022 in Grand style, suited just for you. Wake up and start 2023 with a sunrise view, a brisk walk, a round of golf, a spa treatment or writing resolutions on a hammock under massive oak trees. Happy New Year. Varieties of packages are available.

For more information on the Grand Hotel Golf Resort & Spa, call 251.928.9201 or visit www.grand1847.com

Media Contact: For more information, to set up interviews or for holiday photography from last year, contact Kevin Hellmich at (251) 379.0334 or kevin.hellmich@grand1847.com

