

The Renaissance Mobile Riverview Plaza Hotel, Mobile Alabama's award winning AAA Four Diamond property has recently gone to great lengths to not only maintain this coveted designation, but ensure it remains the region's top choice for the Corporate, Leisure and Group Convention traveler. The Renaissance Riverview owned by RSA, the Retirement Systems of Alabama has renovated each of its 373 spacious guestrooms and all of its public facilities and 44,000 square feet of conference space. Their new look and prime location located in the heart of Mobile and connected to the Mobile Convention Center is second to none amidst Mobile's business and entertainment district.

Overlooking the beautiful waterfront of Mobile Bay and surrounded by restaurants, businesses and historic museums this unique and pristine hotel provides a fresh and inviting stay for every type of traveler.

Closely tied to leadership within the city, to include Visit Mobile, the Mobile Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Alliance the Riverview Plaza boasts an excellent opportunity for the city to celebrate its position as one of the gulf coast's premier destination hotels squarely located in this remarkable cultural center. Home to the original Mardi Gras and the host hotel to the famously celebrated New Year's Eve Moonpie drop, the Renaissance Riverview will continue to host travelers from near and far.

Whether you are traveling for business or pleasure, treat yourself to the upscale comfort this new renovation provides the Renaissance Mobile Riverview Plaza Hotel in Mobile, Alabama!
